200 Killed In Somalia Floods, 300,000 Suffer

AFRICAN DISASTER
WITH man-made annihilation looming barely out of sight, natural catastrophe no longer shakes the world into quick realization that the elemental forces still pose a threat, particularly in underdeveloped countries. Drought or flood in the West nowadays pose technical problems, but aid is massive.
How much aid can be given to a quarter-million Somalis made homeless by a flood? British R.A.F. transports have already begun to drop food and medical supplies in one province, and the F.A.O. has promised its help. What is needed here, to prevent starvation in areas where stored food supplies have been washed away, is a transport organization of the order of a modern army.
The situation is sufficiently grave for air transport that has been taken supplies to drought-stricken Kenya to be diverted to the new disaster area.
But even in Kenya, the situation is far from having been brought under control, or minimum provision being available for the population.
When the Kenya authorities were already mobilized to rush in stocks of food to drought-stricken areas of the colony, the most devastating flood in living memory almost destroyed the country's communications.
This is the cruellest — and the most unexpected — trick which nature could have played upon a country where a severe drought, lasting in some places for almost two years, was already a grave national problem. Overnight it became a national emergency, requiring resources far beyond those Kenya could muster. Even the sizeable forces which Britain maintains in Kenya of aircraft, manpower and technical equipment was not enough to cope with the effects of the disaster, and feed hundreds of thousands of persons. To keep up a daily airlift of 130 tons of food, the Royal Air Force has sent a fleet of giant Beverley transport planes from Britain and the Middle East. In order to get immediate help to small villages and to people stranded on flood-created islets, roof-tops, and even tree-top shelters, 24 helicopters are now in operation.
It will take a long time to assess the full extent of the flood damage which came in place of Kenya's so-called "short" rains. The severing of the rail artery leading inland from Mombasa, Nairobi and on to Uganda, leaves no alternative route for the flow of goods to and from Mombasa.
The vital rail line lies right in the path of the brown floodwaters rushing down the 6,000-foot slope from the Kenya Highlands into the Indian Ocean, and is continually breached anew. This time the flood waters have covered vast areas of w.c. is normally semi-desert, and have even come to the outskirts of Nairobi.
All this means an even gloomier financial outlook for a country slowly struggling towards independence. There is no money to balance the expected £10 million budget deficit next March, and no Government funds are available for relief work on any scale. Over the past year Britain has helped with £300,000, but Mr. Jomo Kenyatta is to launch an African fund and has defended the small amount subscribed so far by Africans by saying they have given what they could afford, but that is little enough.
Months ago, when various tribes were becoming seriously under-nourished through the failure of local crops, there was an air of detachment to be detected in Nairobi, for famine has been almost an annual visitor in one or other part of Kenya, as it is in many other parts of Africa, as inevitable as tribal wars or epidemics.
The central Government authorities' apparent failure to appreciate the dangerous dimensions of this drought, and in any case no money was available. Now floods on top of famine have created disaster that Africa cannot hope to deal with alone.

K Temporarily Drops Defence Talk Demand

MOSCOW (Reuters). — Premier Khrushchev yesterday temporarily dropped his demand for defence talks with Finland, after his meeting on Friday with the Finnish President at Novosibirsk, Siberia.
Soon after President Urho Kekkonen arrived here on his way back to Helsinki, the Soviet news agency Tass issued a statement on the meeting.
It said, Mr. Khrushchev, "paying due tribute" to the Finnish leader's political experience, goodwill, and ability to maintain his country's neutral foreign policy line "found it possible to put off for the time being the military consultations it has suggested."
Tass said Mr. Khrushchev emphasized that the Soviet Government hoped the Finnish Government would watch carefully developments in Northern Europe and the Baltic area and if necessary consult Russia. In his original request for the defence talks last month, Mr. Khrushchev spoke of the need for joint measures against a West German threat.
Rival Withdrawals
Observers here thought the Soviet Government had been reassured of continued Finnish neutrality by the decision of Mr. Kekkonen's chief political rival, Mr. Olavi Honka, to withdraw from the January presidential election, which will precede a general election.
In a statement on Friday night, Mr. Honka said: "The good of the fatherland makes it necessary for me, in the present circumstances, to withdraw my candidacy for the presidential election."
Finnish officials said President Kekkonen told Mr. Khrushchev that joint defence talks at this time might provoke greater tension in the Baltic.
President Kekkonen, however, agreed with Mr. Khrushchev to keep a watchful eye on the developments in the area, and to have joint talks with the Soviet Union should any alarming development occur.
Worried by Rightists
Mr. Khrushchev told the Finnish President at a luncheon in his honour on Friday that the activities of right-wing groups in Finland, directed towards undermining the Paasikivi-Kekkonen line of neutrality "arouse our grave concern."
All necessary measures to curb "the forces of reaction, the forces of imperialism and the forces of revanchism" must be taken before it was too late, he said.
President Kekkonen left Moscow last night for home by train. He is due to reach Helsinki this evening.
(In Washington, Western diplomatic sources welcomed Russia's postponement of defence talks, and said it lifted Soviet pressure against Finland, Denmark and Norway for the time being.)

Mac and De Gaulle Confer on Berlin

LONDON (Reuters). — President de Gaulle and Prime Minister Macmillan continued their world-ranging talks yesterday following the opening of the parley on Friday when the French leader arrived.
The Earl of Home, British Foreign Secretary, Mr. Jean Chauvel, French Ambassador to Britain, and Sir Pearson Dixon, British Ambassador to France, went to Birch Grove yesterday for luncheon talks with the President and the Prime Minister.
Mr. Macmillan hopes to convince Gen. de Gaulle that the time is ripe now for the Western powers to open negotiations with the Soviet Union on Berlin. That represents the major item in the discussions.
The President and Mme. de Gaulle are due to leave Gatwick Airport, near London, this morning.

Cyprus Justice Minister Here

Mrs. Stella Souliotou
The Cypriot Minister of Justice, Mrs. Stella Souliotou, arrived on Friday for a five-day official visit. She came to Jerusalem last night after having toured Nazareth, Haifa, and Caesarea. Friday night she was in Tel Aviv.
This is the first official visit to Israel by a Cypriot Minister. Mrs. Souliotou, the only woman member of the Cypriot Cabinet, has been here for three months in Ramle in 1961 as a member of the (British) Women's Auxiliary Air Force.
During the day she addressed the women's page editors section of the Tel Aviv Journalists Association, which was held at the Ministry of Justice. Dr. Dov Joseph, the Minister of Justice, and other Foreign Ministry officials and representatives of women's organizations.

Johnson Sees Refugee Solution Only Within Overall Settlement

UNITED NATIONS (Reuters). — Dr. Joseph E. Johnson, special representative of the Palestine Conciliation Commission, reported yesterday that there are "many indications that no progress can be made on the Palestine Arab refugee question apart from an overall settlement."
In a report which was published as an addendum to the Commission's 18th progress report dated October 13, Dr. Johnson said there is "no prospect of an early solution of the Palestine question as a whole."
Dr. Johnson, special representative of the Commission (whose members are composed of the U.S., France and Turkey) visited Israel and the Arab countries from August 31 to September 20.
But he said, the willingness expressed to himself by the parties to consider the possibility of a step-by-step process without prejudice to positions on the other related issues, led him to "be more optimistic while continuing the effort that the Commission has now begun."
Dr. Johnson said that whether progress would be possible no one could say now for certain, "but to state the matter in the most negative way, the signs that no progress is possible are not conclusive as to justify a decision not to try."
The Commission noted that last May it decided to explore by means of a special representative the precise views of the parties as to what action might usefully be undertaken in the implementation of a key paragraph of a General Assembly resolution of the third session, in 1948, resolving that the refugees wishing to return to their homes and live in peace with their neighbours should be permitted to do so at the earliest practicable date, and that compensation should be paid for the property of those choosing not to return and for loss of or damage to property which, under principles of international law or in equity, should be made good by the governments or authorities responsible.
This resolution instructed the Commission "to facilitate the repatriation, resettlement and economic and social rehabilitation of the refugees and the payment of compensation."
Dr. Johnson's report said there were "certain fundamental considerations that must underlie any continuing effort."
The first was that focus should be upon the refugees.
The second was the need to obtain the cooperation of the governments directly concerned.
The third was to "recognize that even if there is some prospect of progress there can be no early end to the refugee problem."
The fourth was the need for appropriate machinery, procedures and financial assistance.
Moreover, there would be a continuing need for international assistance. "I hope this will be determined, imaginative and generous," Dr. Johnson said. "Unless there is such continued assistance, the cautious hopes here expressed cannot be fulfilled."
On the other hand, if the international community is to go on carrying most of the financial burden, it is entitled to expect that those immediately concerned — Israel, the Arab host countries and the refugees themselves — will cooperate with determination and willingness in bringing about real progress on this tragic issue."
Dr. Johnson said that the approach of appointing a special representative of the "fugee" debate instead of coming home.
However, should it be thought that her presence at the United Nations is merely a substitute for the Government to send a substitute to Tanganyika.

French Officials Seized in Egypt

PARIS (AP). — Four French officials have been arrested in Cairo despite the fact that the Egyptian Government has formally recognized the judicial immunity of the Foreign Ministry announced last night.
It is believed here that their arrest may be connected with the recent drive by Abdul Nasser against business interests, in which many influential businessmen have been arrested and their property sequestered.
A communiqué issued by the French Foreign Ministry identified the officials as M. André Michel, President of the Commission of French property in Egypt; two of his assistants, M. Henri Mouton and M. Jean Bellivier; and M. André Michel, in charge of a cultural mission. The communiqué said they were arrested during the night of November 23.
France had no diplomatic relations with Egypt since the 1956 Suez operation. The Foreign Ministry said it had been informed of the arrest by the Swiss Government, which handles French interests in Egypt. Berne has been asked to make immediate representations to secure the men's release.

Nasser Claims Aim is Freedom

Abdul Nasser told yesterday's inaugural meeting in Cairo of the preparatory committee of the Egyptian National Congress: "You are about to embark on a great task, and your goal must be justice and freedom."
He urged the committee, in a three-and-a-half-hour speech, to work for the elimination of imperialism and feudalism and the building up of a strong national army. "We are having an economic revolution," he said.
"I never thought in July, 1952 that I would continue to rule this country, but only of liberating the fellah from feudalism and restoring to him his freedom as an individual."
There must be all the freedom and justice for the nation and no freedom for the enemies of the nation. To solve its problems the nation is opening its door to all groups of goodwill, but if such an approach is unsuccessful we shall have to use some other means against these groups."
In an attack on Syria, he noted that among the Egyptian officers recently repatriated from there, were a number who had been prisoners of war and he said, "that their treatment at Israel's hands had been far better than in Syria." (Reuters, Cairo Radio)

Maltese Attack Socialist Visitors

VALLETTA (Reuters). — Shots were fired on Friday night at a motorcade carrying visiting Socialists, police reported here yesterday. The shots hit a car carrying Mr. Joseph Zerafa, Malta Labour Party, and Ludwig Metzger, a West German Socialist. Neither was hurt but the driver was slightly injured.
The Israeli member of the delegation, Mr. Peretz Gordon, was not present in the car. The incident occurred as the Socialists were arriving at the fishing village of Zurrieq for a dinner in honour of some British M.P.s and a three-man Socialist International delegation.
On Thursday, the Socialist International delegates who arrived here last Monday as guests of the Malta Labour Party, visited the nearby island of Gozo. The delegates, Mr. Metzger, Mr. Ake Fors of Sweden, and Mr. Peretz Gordon, were both with their chief in the Council Chamber when the Council voted.
Mr. Valerian Zorin, Soviet representative, who also is President of the Council this month, urged U. Thant to end the "one-sided" U.N. staff situation in the Congo — an allusion to the absence of Soviet nationals from the operation.

B'sheba Invalid Burns to Death As Fire Fighters Delayed

By H. BEN-AD, Jerusalem Post Reporter
BEERSHEBA. — A 45-year-old, partially paralyzed invalid, Zvi Schultz, was burnt to death Friday in a fire which destroyed his hut in the Hatzorim ma'bara near here.
It is believed that the fire started when the kerosene cooker, on which he was preparing his meal, overturned. He could not escape from the blazing hut and died in the flames.
Schultz, who was paralyzed in both legs, came from Poland five years ago and was under the care of the Welfare Department. He was single.
The fire in the hut could not be put out because the Fire Brigade's main engine was absent from Beersheba when the alarm was given, and the pump on the reserve engine failed to work.
At 11.15, when the Fire Brigade was informed of the fire by a passing soldier, the Fire Chief, Mr. Shlomo Bernheim, was on his way to the town of Netivot with the Brigade's main fire engine to extricate a boy who had fallen into a four-metre-deep well.
As it turned out the boy, Avraham Bookila, was lifted out of the well before the firemen arrived. Negev Police

Demuclear Africa Motion Passed

UNITED NATIONS (AP). — The General Assembly brushed aside Western objections on Friday and voted to call on all countries to recognize Africa as a demuclearized zone.
The vote was 55-0 with 44 abstaining. The U.S. and Britain abstained, as did Israel and 10 African nations, mostly belonging to the Brazzaville group. The Soviet bloc voted for the resolution.
The resolution, initiated by a group of African countries, urged an end to nuclear testing in Africa and called for a voluntary ban on the transport and stockpiling of nuclear weapons in Africa.
The Assembly then adopted an Asian-African proposal demanding the use of nuclear weapons in war as a crime against mankind and a violation of the U.N. Charter. The resolution also requested the U.N. Secretary-General U. Thant to consult member nations on the possibility of calling a conference to ban the use of nuclear weapons in war. The vote on this was 55-20 with 25 abstaining, including Israel.
The U.S., Britain and France voted against the resolution on the ground that they could not accept any proposal calling for an uncontrolled, unattended ban.

Report is Being Studied in J'lem

POST Diplomatic Reporter
The Foreign Ministry spokesman in Jerusalem declined to comment last night on the Johnson report (above), saying that the Ministry was studying it. It is to be assumed that reaction will probably come from the delegation at the U.N. which is headed by the Foreign Minister, Mrs. Golda Meir.
Mrs. Meir's time schedule has been considerably disrupted by the postponement of the debate on the Arab refugee issue until next week. She had planned to be present for the entire debate.
Assuming that the discussion on Oman will last one week, the refugee debate will not begin before December 4. Mrs. Meir had intended leaving New York on December 7 to attend Tanganyika's Independence Day celebrations. She will do her best to keep this appointment, stay in Dar es Salaam for three days as planned, and then return to New York for the refugee debate instead of coming home.
However, should it be thought that her presence at the United Nations is merely a substitute for the Government to send a substitute to Tanganyika.

S. Vietnam Press Turns on U.S.

SAIGON (AP). — Saigon newspapers, which normally reflect the views of South Vietnam's Government, have charged in lead editorials that the U.S. has "imperialist" ambitions in South Vietnam.
In an editorial on Friday, "Thoi Bao," reprinted in part yesterday by the daily "Tu Do," the U.S. was described as trying to govern South Vietnam and as making a "guinea pig" of the republic.
"Is the American Government willing to help only on the condition that it exploit Vietnam with a policy of imperialism?" the front page article asked. It said, "The vague policy of the U.S. concerning Cuba and Laos has shown us the face of imperialism. We have grounds for believing the American will help Vietnam only on conditions, and the main condition is to be able to govern this country under the usual policy of the imperialists."
The sudden editorial criticism of the U.S. comes at a time when crucial talks are under way between U.S. Ambassador, Frederick E. Nolting, and the South Vietnamese Government regarding new Communist Viet Cong rebellion. The attack is regarded as a sign that negotiations have hit snags, although the subject of the talks has been closely kept secret.
A key problem is understood to be U.S. pressure for reforms in President Ngo Dinh Diem's administration.

Trujillo Property Is Taken Over

SANTO DOMINGO (formerly Ciudad Trujillo) (Reuters). — Dominican armed forces have taken possession of property belonging to the brothers, nephews and other relatives of the late General Trujillo, former Dominican dictator, and their associates.
An announcement said the measure had been taken because of looting. Riots on Thursday burned down houses belonging to four relations of General Trujillo's family.

Slightly Warmer Today

Temperatures will rise slightly today, according to the weatherman. Maximum temperatures predicted are 15 in Jerusalem (12 yesterday); 22 in Tel Aviv (20); 19 in Haifa (17); 22 in Tibers (20); and 26 in Eilat (23).

After Midnight

Colonel Abdul Salim Mohammed Arif, former Iraqi Deputy Prime Minister, was released yesterday after three years' detention after being convicted of an attempt to assassinate Prime Minister Nasser.
Mr. Khrushchev last night published a declaration that if any nation possessed with nuclear weapons the Security Council will do the same thing. This came 24 hours after the U.S. delegate to the nuclear talks in Geneva, said the negotiations, opening there Tuesday would not come any delay in America's testing of a G. & C.

Kenyatta's Anti-Israel Statement 'a Fabrication'

Jerusalem Post Correspondent LONDON. — The Cairo Radio report of November 15, quoting the Kenyan leader Jomo Kenyatta as saying that he would not go to Israel nor meet with Prime Minister Ben-Gurion is a fabrication, according to diplomatic circles here.

Mr. Kenyatta made the alleged statement to reporters at Cairo airport during a stop-over while en route from London to Addis Ababa, on his way back to Kenya.

According to informed sources here, Mr. Kenyatta said he planned to visit as many countries as he saw fit. When Egyptian newsmen asked him whether he planned to meet Mr. Ben-Gurion in Dar Es Salaam, Mr. Kenyatta took offense at what he said he considered interference in matters which are none of their concern. He also objected to their apparent desire to draw him to their side in the Arab-Israel dispute.

Chas. Weissman, B'sheba Benefactor, Dies at 73

The death has taken place in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, of Charles Weissman, best known in Israel for the playground and swimming pool which he built and gave to Beersheba. Mr. Weissman was 73.

Last year Mr. Weissman and his wife celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary with a trip to Israel, and while here the couple presented the first prefabricated cottages at a swimming competition at the club pool built as a youth center, the club is used by the elderly in the morning.

Though he was active in many affairs in this country for the past 35 years, he paid his first visit only after the establishment of the State, when he came with the "Alliance Caravan" to dedicate the tire factory at Hadera of which he was a founding investor.

Mr. Weissman came to the United States from Russia at the turn of the century with 20 cents in his pocket. In 1933 he settled in Wilkes-Barre and established the American Auto Accessories Stores Inc., which grew into a network of ten stores.

A colorful, stimulating man, he was a noted figure in the business and civic affairs of his City and State and travelled abroad as the Governor of Pennsylvania's Ambassador of Goodwill. He was received at the Vatican on his last visit by Pope John.

He is survived by his wife, Fannie, who joined him in all his widespread philanthropies, his son, Oscar, who now heads the firm founded and shares his father's interests in Israel, as well as two daughters and seven grandchildren.

Dragunski: Soviet Jewry Will Disappear by Assimilation

By MAURICE CARR, Jerusalem Post Correspondent
PARIS.—Soviet Jewish General David Dragunski told a press conference here that "disappearance of the Soviet Union's three million Jews through assimilation is inevitable." He made it plain he saw nothing wrong with the looming extinction of Russian Jewry.

Gen. Dragunski, who is a politician as well as a military man — he is a member of the Supreme Soviet — declared on Thursday that he saw no objection to the principle of freedom for Soviet Jews to emigrate to Israel but was sure that if a referendum were held on the subject "no more than 100 Jews would vote to leave and then only elderly ones who are at a loose end."

"For the rest, which Jew would want to swap Moscow for Leningrad for Haifa or kibbutz? For that matter why don't French, Belgian, Swiss, American Jews go to settle in Israel?" he demanded.

Asked if he would care to visit Israel, Gen. Dragunski replied, "Yes, but I am sure Ben-Gurion wouldn't grant me a visa."

As to Israel's foreign policy, the General said he shared the views of Israel Communist leader Mikuna on the subject, adding, "I wish Israel to become a truly sovereign and independent state. We don't expect her to go Communist but why can't she be neutral, like Asia?"

He continued, "It is repellent to see Ben-Gurion shake Adenauer's hand. Referring to the Eichmann trial, Gen. Dragunski complained of the slowness of Israel justice, which seems to be trying to ensure that Eichmann will die of old age."

As delegate to the latest Soviet Communist Party Congress Gen. Dragunski categorically denied the American press report that a group of Jewish generals submitted to the Congress a memorandum calling for restoration to Jews of rights deprived by Stalin.

Pressed to explain why he, a Stalinist, prevailed before the Stalinist anti-Jewish persecutions, Gen. Dragunski said the Yiddish Jewish press and theatre had not been re-opened — the General claimed there was a diminishing demand for Yiddish publications and culture in general. The new Yiddish review "Soviet Heimland" was issued not because it was really Yiddish but "for political reasons," Gen. Dragunski stated — a plain implication it was a sop to public opinion in western countries.

2,000 Candidates In Syrian Elections

DAMASCUS (AP). — Over 2,000 candidates have begun an election campaign for the 172 seats of Syria's first Parliament after the break of her union with Egypt.

The elections, scheduled for December 1, were called to "democratize" Syria's government system.

Instead of Abdul Nasser's one-man rule, Syria's future parliamentary system will vest executive powers in a Premier with a figurehead President while Parliament will exercise legislative authority.

The total number of officially registered candidates was estimated at over 2,000. Only one has been returned. Unopposed, he is Sheikh Faisal Nawaf al-Saleh, chief of the Hadidiyin tribe near Aleppo.

RUTH CHATTERTON DEAD AT 67
NORWALK, Connecticut (Reuters). — Ruth Chatterton, the actress and novelist, died in hospital here on Friday, at the age of 67, after a brief illness.

She was born in 1894 and became active in committees set up to relieve food shortages there and received an award from the United Nations for her work in 1951. She was married three times.

Belafonte Banned In Arab States

DAMASCUS (Reuters). — The Arab League Israel Boycott Central Office has banned films and records of the American Negro entertainer, Harry Belafonte, because of his "extreme pro-Israel propaganda." It was announced.

The announcement said the office also blacklisted four American and British, Turkish, Italian and Swedish firms for "violating boycott regulations."

AIRBORNE — A doctor at London's Royal National Orthopedic Hospital has found a way of keeping patients hovering in mid-air so their operations would be carried out in comfort.

The letter laid particular stress on moves under the Pope's direction against revival of the centuries old charge of "ritual murder" by Jews.

Mr. Brooks expressed appreciation for a Vatican order requiring that "ritual murder" scenes depicted on the windows of the Catholic Church of Deggendorf, Germany, be covered.
